APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Their Journey Starts Here

Fill in the details below to begin your child's application. This starts the process; it isn't the final signed contract. Our admissions team will follow up with the official enrolment agreement for signature once we've reviewed your details.

Before you start:
Have the student's ID/birth certificate, both parents'/guardians' ID documents, and the last two school reports on hand. This application is detailed and may take 10-15 minutes.

Key Terms You'll Be Asked To Sign

This online form is not the legal contract. Once reviewed, you will be asked to complete and sign the full Application for Admission.

Rules, discipline & uniform

Students and parents are bound by Glen Afric's rules, regulations and Code of Conduct. Any costs incurred in disciplining a student are borne by the applicant. A uniform is required during classes and school activities, detailed in the General Information Brochure.

In Loco Parentis & consent to act

The Head of Glen Afric is granted parental authority (in loco parentis) over the student while on the premises or at any school-related activity, including consenting to emergency medical treatment if needed.

Site & safety

Glen Afric Learning Centre is situated on the Glen Afric Country Lodge. Access is controlled, gate passes are required for vehicles, and all vehicles are subject to random security checks. Applicants and students must follow the reserve's general safety rules.

Fees & payment terms

Fees are set out in a separate Fee Schedule and payable in advance, by the first of the month, over 11 months. A non-refundable deposit is required on enrolment. Outstanding fees attract interest, calculated and compounded monthly. Cambridge examination fees are separate, payable directly to the examination centre. No refund is granted where the school ceases services due to the student's or applicant's conduct, or illness.

Ending enrolment

To terminate enrolment, the applicant must give 3 calendar months' written notice, or pay 3 months' fees in lieu of notice, plus any other amounts owing.

Indemnity & liability

The applicant indemnifies Glen Afric's Directors, Head and Staff against claims arising from the student's enrolment, except in cases of gross negligence. Personal possessions of the student are not covered by Glen Afric's insurance - the applicant is responsible for arranging their own cover.

Language, law & jurisdiction

English is the medium of instruction. South African law applies to any dispute, with jurisdiction in the Brits Magistrate's Court or North Gauteng High Court, Pretoria, at Glen Afric's discretion.

Consent

☐ I consent to Glen Afric Learning Centre verifying the information provided in this application, and to being contacted about it.

☐ I understand this online form starts the application process, and that I will still need to complete and sign the official Application for Admission contract, including the full terms summarised above, before a place is confirmed.
